SALTRUN PRODUCTIONS AND CAT'S EYE EDITORIAL INC. RECEIVE 2003 COMMUNICATOR AWARDS

Atlanta, GA – January 8, 2004 – SaltRun Productions and Cat's Eye Editorial Inc. have won two 2003 Communicator Awards in the Communications/Environmental category for their work on "The Natural South" television series. The Communicator Awards is an international awards competition that recognizes outstanding work in the communications field. This year's competition featured 3,730 entries from throughout the United States and several foreign countries.

The winning shows included, "A to Z of Bees" and "Operation Migration" which received the Crystal Award of Excellence as well as "Alabama Wildlife Rehab" which received Honorable Mention.

"The Natural South" explores the environmental jewels of the Southeast. Honored with eleven national Telly awards and two EMMY nominations, the program features attempts to restore and preserve the wild in the Southeast and ways the viewer can help by making changes in their home environment. "The Natural South" is hosted by Cathy Sakas, a professional naturalist and educator for NOAA's Gray's Reef off the Georgia Coast. Cathy guides viewers through Southeastern resources and ecosystems that tie in to the featured home environment. The half-hour weekly series on Turner South airs Saturdays at 10:00 a.m., Sundays at 8 a.m. and Thursdays at 7:30 p.m. (EST).

The production team for The Natural South includes Suzan Satterfield, president of SaltRun Productions and producer/writer for The Natural South, Kitty Ray Swain, president of Cat's Eye Editorial Inc. and post-producer and editor for The Natural South, Allen Facemire, vice-president of SaltRun Productions and director/director of photography for The Natural South, with additional SaltRun producer Mary Grace Higgs, and production coordinator, Becky Buzogany.
